DISTRICT MEETING OF S. S. WORKERS TO BE HELD SUNDAY

Annual District Conventions of Mason County Sunday Schools Will Be Held Next Sunday.

Next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock five district Sunday schools will be held in Mason county. Preparations for these conventions have been in progress for several weeks. The County Association has spared no pains in making every effort possible to make the conventions a success and help. Men and women who know Sunday school methods and who have succeeded in this phase of the work have been assigned to these conventions. Every school in the county should send large delegations, especially of their officers and teachers, to these district meetings. Let every school send its report so that the convention may know how each school progresses. As a quantity of programs have been sent to each school it will not be necessary to publish the complete program for each meeting. Suffice it will be the announcing of place and speakers. These follow:

District Number One—Orangeburg M. E. Church, South. Speaker, Rev. O. C. Seavors, pastor of First M. E. Church, South, Maysville. Representing the association: Miss Georgia Carrigan, County Superintendent of the Young Peoples' Work.

District Number Two—Helena M. E. Church, South. Speakers, Miss Mary L. Wilson, member of State Association executive committee, and Miss Ann Shackleford, County Superintendent of Children's Work. Representing the association: J. H. Richardson, county president.

District Number Three—Sardis M. E. Church, South. Speaker, Rev. W. S. Poters, pastor Third Street M. E. Church, Maysville. Representing the association: Elmer T. Kirk, county superintendent of administration.

ALLEGED BROWN LIQUOR LAW VIOLATORS FINED

Alleged Violators of Prohibition Laws Are Very Heavily Fined in Brown County, Ohio.

The Ripley Bee says: William Atwell plead guilty when taken before Judge Tarbell in the Common Pleas court, Monday morning, to violation of the enforcement laws, and he was fined $500 for manufacturing and $200 for selling corn whiskey. Sheriff Neu and Marshal Dave Fry, or Sardina, had taken Atwell into custody the Friday following a search of his father's home near Five Point, upon the Sardina-Macon pike. They found stored away in the loft of a summer kitchen a complete still and in a jar a small quantity of corn whiskey. The father, Elmer Atwell, was also arrested for being the owner of a structure in which the still was found. A hearing will be given him Saturday. The son was unable to pay the fine assessed against him and he was remanded to jail to await further disposition. He is said to have recently returned home from Middletown, where similar charges were made against him.

Guillemard, who the week preceding was arrested for having corn whiskey in his possession, and a still still having been found at his home, was given a fine of $500, $300 being suspended upon his good behavior. He paid the $200 and returned to his home in the Sardina section of the county.

EASTERN STAR MEETING.

Regular semi-monthly meeting of Maysville Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star will be held Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Masonic Temple. A class of four candidates will be initiated.

MAINE POTATOES RECEIVED.

The M. C. Russell Company has just received a large shipment of potatoes grown in the state of Maine, the first potatoes ever handled by this firm from the state.

Mrs. Margaret Bauer, of Arnheim, Ohio, after a visit to the Misses Spromberg, her nieces, of Commerce street, returned home Friday morning.

CITY TAX LEVY IS FIXED AT LAST YEAR'S FIGURES BY COUNCIL

City Council Does Not Increase Tax Levy For the Year 1922—Police-man Suspended for Thirty Days.

At the regular semi-monthly meeting of City Council held Thursday evening at the Council Chamber, an ordinance fixing the tax rate for the next fiscal year was offered and received by council. It will lay over for two weeks and be finally adopted at the next meeting of the body.

This ordinance fixes the tax rate at $1.55 per hundred, the same figure upon which taxes were assessed last year. In failing to increase the tax levy, council is following out the recommendations of the special Advisory Board of citizens and the city's budget is divided just as the advisory board advised including 10.65c for sinking fund purposes to take care of past due indebtedness. If this sinking fund is continued, the city's past due and maturing indebtedness will be finally paid within a few years.

Patrolman Harry Stewart was suspended for thirty days without pay by council, charges of drunkenness having been filed against him by the police committee.

Steps were taken to straighten out the sidewalks in the Sixth ward opposite the ball park, the City Attorney being instructed to bring condemnation proceedings against the property owners at once.

A majority report of the Special committee appointed to go into the matter of the People's Warehouse at Bank and Second being on the city streets, Members Dodson and Hirschfeld concurring. Member Davis dissenting, provided that the building will remain as at present, the warehouse company building a sidewalk on Bank street, keeping shed doors locked when not in use and installing a lead trough on Second street. This committee report was adopted by a vote of 10 to 1, Member Davis voting in the negative.

The ordinance providing for the issuance of $20,000 worth of Emergency bonds, previously received, was finally adopted.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN ARKANSAS.

Mr. Potor D. Courtney, age 77, died after a brief illness at his home at Mammoth Springs, Ark., May 2nd. He was born and lived in Maysville the greater portion of his life. A veteran of the Civil War, having been a member of Company 16th Ky. Volunteer Infantry. Older resident will remember him; he conducted a gymnasium on Market street where the Rev. Jno. Barbour's residence now stands. His wife, Alice McCardie, died several years ago, he leaves one son, three daughters and one sister Mrs. M. C. Chisholm of Newport, formerly of this city.

His many friends in Maysville will regret to learn that Mr. Matt Chisholm is in feeble health. He has never recovered from a fall he sustained nearly a year ago.

OHIO JUVENILE BANDS MAKE SPLENDID SHOWING HERE.

Among the various bands here Wednesday to play for the Knights Templar parade were many juvenile organizations. For the first time the juvenile bands from Georgetown and West Union, Ohio, played here and made a most favorable impression. Both of these organizations make splendid music and are well trained. The bands were joined into one great musical organization at the reception given by Mt. Sterling Commandery at Beechwood Park. Their combined concert was well executed and greatly enjoyed. Maysville people were very glad of this opportunity of hearing these bands for the first time and hope to be enabled to hear them often.

The dance committee of the Alumni Association through the efforts of Mr. Robert Clift its chairman has secured Bruce's quintet, of Lexington, for the alumni dance to be held on the night of June 16. The dance will very probably be held at Beechwood Park since the weather at that time usually makes the High School auditorium unfit for dancing.

Mrs. George Bruce, of Houston, Texas, and Mrs. Bruce Brown, of Glendale, Ohio, will arrive Saturday, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Wood of West Front street.

SPECIAL TRAIN TO CARRY LOCAL FANS TO LEXINGTON

Excursion to Carry Many Local Fans To Lexington Sunday—Interest In Saturday's Game With Mayslick.

Secretary Treasurer E. L. Willett after several days negotiating with the L. & N. announces that a special train will leave this city Sunday morning at 9:30 arriving in Lexington about noon and returning leaving at 7 o'clock in the evening, the fare being $2.50 the round trip. Several hundred fans are expected to make this excursion and witness the game between the Cardinals and the Studebakers in their fight for the league leadership. Shaw will likely face the opposition with Monhollen on the mound for the runners-up. Since their appearance here Lexington has made a strong addition in the person of Pat Devereaux, former Ohio State League who has taken up the role of manager of the Studebakers.

Though the Cardinals were idle Thursday on account of wet grounds their lead in the race was advanced half a notch when Mt. Sterling did the unexpected by defeating the Lexington Studebakers 8 to 1 putting the locals a game and a half in the lead. Arrangements have not been completed as to the play-off of Thursday's postponed game and the Cynthia eluh returned home.

Many fans are of the opinion that a big surprise is in store Saturday when the Cardinals take on Mayslick in an exhibition game. The report is that they have secured the Oakleys from Cincinnati to play under the name of Mayslick but whether it is the case or not the locals can count on meeting a pretty live bunch of professionals when they trot out on the field.

LOUISVILLE KNIGHTS WERE PLEASED WITH TREATMENT.

The following telegram sent by Emment Commander Laville, of DeMolay Commandery, Louisville, to a friend in Louisville and published in the Louisville Post Thursday shows the pleasure of visiting Louisville Knights at their treatment in Maysville:

Maysville, Ky.

Chas. J. Bornwasser: DeMolay awarded first prize in exhibition drill this afternoon. Thirty-six Kentucky commanderies attending enclaved. Drill corps in their enthusiasm carried Capt. Jefferson on their shoulders through the streets of the town to the hotel. The cup was presented to us, likewise the town. Great interest and enthusiasm in evidence. We are accorded every courtesy. W. R. R. Laville, Commander.

ZEKE ANDERSON PARDONED.

Frankfort, Ky., May 18. — Zeke Anderson, serving fifteen years for manslaughter, who last year escaped from a convict road camp and went to his home in Pike county made a crop so his family would not suffer during the winter and then returned to the state reformatory here, today was pardoned by Governor Morrow.

Anderson was received at the prison in May, 1918, and had served more than three years of his sentence.

CHECKS SENT OUT BY BURLEY POOL FOR $10,000,000

Secretary Earley, of Burley Association, Completes Big Task and Distributors Will Distribute Second Payment to Growers.

Lexington, Ky., May 18. — The list of the 75,000 and more checks from the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association to the members of the association in the Burley counties of Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana were mailed today by Secretary H. L. Earley, carrying with them nearly $10,000,000 cash for the farmers and putting into circulation next Saturday in the Burley district a sum of money which will mean a considerable stimulus to business of all kinds.

The checks are to be delivered Saturday to the growers in their home counties. Those who deliver their tobacco in other counties than their home counties will not go to the place of delivery to receive their checks. Many growers in Central Kentucky delivered their tobacco to the Lexington receiving plants, but they will be paid in their own home counties and not in Lexington unless they are residents of Fayette county.

Every grower should have his participation certificate with him, and all must write their addresses on the back of the checks in order to have them honored by the banks. Merchants throughout the district are urged by associations officials to see that the postoffice address, as well as the name of the grower, is plainly written on the back of each check before they accept it. In this way the correct address of the grower for the present crop year will be in the hands of the association.

SOUTHERN METHODISTS VOTE FOR UNITY

Conference With Northern Methodists To Be Had Looking to Union Of the Two Branches.

Hot Springs, Ark., May 18. — The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, tonight voted, after a sharp debate, to "go all the way" in the matter of proposed unification with the Methodist Episcopal church and authorized appointment of a commission with liberty of action to negotiate with a similar commission of the Northern branch.

The fight over the question of unification got to the floor in the afternoon, but ran into a parliamentary situation as to adjournment, and the matter went over to the night session. Majority and minority reports were returned by the committee which considered the question.

The majority report urged the appointment of another commission to confer with one from the Northern branch, and recommended that if the plans were agreeable to the commission and the General Conference of the Northern Church a special session of the Southern branch's General Conference be called to consider the matter.

The minority report recommended the appointment of a commission which would not include a provision for a special session of the General Conference.

Mrs. James Mackey, wife of the city's Chief of Police, remains in a very critical condition at her home in West Third street.

CITY BELONGS TO TOBACCO GROWERS ALL DAY TOMORROW

Great Sum of Money To Be Distributed To Members of Burley Tobacco Pool Here Saturday—Band Concerts and Speaking.

Saturday is to be Tobacco Growers' Day in Maysville. Hundreds of growers throughout the county will spend the day in town. The big attraction is the distribution of checks by the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association to the members of the association. Several hundred thousand dollars will be placed in the hands of Mason county growers and this is expected to make business rather lively in the city for some time.

The checks will be distributed at the old Brady-Bouldin stand at the northeast corner of Second and Market streets.

There will be a band concert and speaking at the Washington Opera House from 12:45 to 1:30 o'clock. This band concert will be by the Horseshoe Band. The Cardinal band will play a concert for the growers in the Market street band stand from 3 to 4 o'clock.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, D. C. — "Foreign determination to direct public opinion and influence government action in the United States is growing every day more evident," declares the Republican Publicity Association. "The United States must restore the world," declares Sir George Finch, and he finds an amazingly large number of metropolitan papers willing to print his articles with big headlines and every indication of inferential endorsement. From day to day former Americans and some natives of this country who still retain their citizenship, are insisting that the United States, which no one contends was in the slightest degree responsible for the war in Europe, is held to be in duty bound to make the supreme sacrifice in order to restore a continent that shows little desire to be restored and which could rapidly restore itself if its people would but lay down their arms and go to work.

"If the money and energy and intellectual ingenuity which are now being expended in propaganda in America were diverted to the task of restoring Europe, little help from outside would be needed. Apparently assuming that the American people are stupid, the propagandists put forth such general and supposedly impressive phrases as 'disastrous position in which war and peace have placed the world,' 'greatest political and economical danger and greatest suffering,' and 'save world civilization.' 'The dismal picture of European conditions is followed with the statement that 'hope now rests with America,' as though it depended upon one nation to save a dozen other nations that seem determined not to be saved.

"Like the black sheep of an otherwise honorable and respected family, Europe plea for more money. Says the propagandist, 'as for Europe, her recovery is impossible unless America supplies the money.' There is no assurance whatever that if more money were added to the eleven billions already supplied to Europe any of that money would be used for restoration of the industries of peace. We hear pleas that America must send more food to Russia notwithstanding the fact that Russia has greater food producing possibilities than any other nation on the face of the globe. Europe continues her armaments, her aggressions, her wars, and calls upon America to supply the food and money.

"No prodigal son was ever reformed by supplying him with money while still pursuing his prodigal ways. The repentant prodigal, returning to useful work and habits of thrift, has seldom failed to receive assistance. If Europe will not turn from her evil ways and once more engage in useful production, no amount of money supplied or promised by America will save the civilization of that continent. 'The fact is that the situation in

Charles Kennan, retired farmer, 81 Wood street, Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills several different times within the last few years and never had them fail to do me good. My kidneys were in a mighty bad shape the first time I used them. The secretions I passed were bloody and burned terribly. My back kept me in misery during the time the attack lasted and I was feeling generally run down. I went to Wood & Son's Drug Store and got a couple boxes of them. This medicine reached my case at once and cured me up in good shape. I have always relied upon Doan's ever since. I use a few now and then to regulate my kidneys and they never fail me."

Europe is not nearly so bad as represented, as proven by the rapid improvement in foreign exchange. There is no reason why Europe should not at once return to productive industry if the peoples of the several nations so desire and are willing to make the effort. So long as propagandists hold out assurance that ultimately America will 'supply the money,' there is no prospect that Europe will turn from its debauch. The United States can probably do nothing better for Europe than reassert at every opportunity its determination to keep out of European affairs so far as governmental action is concerned, but leaving individual American free to enter into such commercial and industrial relations with Europeans as the conditions of each transaction may justify."

HUMAN RIGHTS AND PROPERTY RIGHTS.

The demagogue who seeks to gain power by attacks upon industry often speaks of the struggle between human rights and property rights. But property rights are among the most precious of human rights. Civilization begins when government provides guarantees that the accumulations of toil, thrift, foresight and enterprise will be protected, and not before.

There is no better established truth than that men will not toil or plan without incentive. Modern society has sought to bring forth the maximum of human effort by protecting the fruits of effort. The patent system, which levies toll upon millions in order that an individual may be richly rewarded for devising some means of more efficient production, land titles, mining rights; these and many other guarantees of the right of the individual to legally own that which is morally his, though often assailed by revolutionaries, are among the bulwarks of property rights in civilized society.

There are things the political demagogue cannot do. He cannot compel men to risk their time, effort or money in unprofitable undertakings. It is within the power of government to expropriate profits, and to lay upon productive industry such burdens that investment in factories, mines, farm and transportation systems will cease to be profitable. But in doing this the masses of the people will be harmed, not helped. Employment will be destroyed, production will be curtailed, and general depression will inevitably follow.

Among the most active of the professional assailants of industry are the state socialists who declare that when private enterprise has been destroyed, government ownership and operation will follow. The people of the United States have had some recent experience with government management of industry, and have come to believe that political operation is a remedy far worse than the disease it was expected to cure. Higher cost of service, lower quality of service and the creation of a menace to popular government through the creation of a huge army of office holders, are the accompaniments of such a system.

The revolution in Russia is said to have produced 80,000 popular orators, whose appeals to ignorance, envy and class hatred were so effective that the whole industrial fabric of an ancient nation was destroyed and the productive power of a hundred million people has vanished. No page in all human history is blackened with such a chapter of oppression, starvation and reaction to barbarism as is that which records the ruin of Russia by the soviet socialists. If there had been anything in the theories of the property hating politicians, Russia would now be enjoying an Utopian existence.

The man who builds up a great industry, giving employment to thousands, and furnishing comforts or luxuries to multiplied thousands more, is not a public enemy but a public benefactor. The political adventurer who, for the votes there are in such practices, seeks to arouse the people against legitimate business enterprise, is the worst enemy of the people.

The greatest menace to the future of America is the demagogue who preaches hatred of productive industry, and who appeals to the lowest instincts of men in an effort to arouse class consciousness and array group against group in this republic.—National Republican.

VALENTINO IS KENTUCKIAN.

Danville, Ky., May 17. — Rudolph Valentino, it is to the screen world, but back here in the office of the Danville Advocate, it is just plain Rudolph McGinnis.

Valentino, who thrills the crowds in the moving picture theaters with his love making, now entangled in a legal snarl over his later marriage, is the son of Everett McGinnis, for years foreman of the Advocate printing office here.

Thirty years ago and before Rudolph's birth, the family moved to Winchester. A short time later they left for Colorado and with the passing of years the name of McGinnis became Valentino.

AGED GREENUP WOMAN SUICIDES BY HANGING

Miss Mary Pfaff Found Dangling From Barn in Rear of Home At Greenup.

Greenup, Ky., May 19. — Dangling from a rafter in the barn in the rear of her home on Main street in Greenup, the lifeless body of Miss Mary Pfaff, aged 60, was found Friday morning at 9 o'clock by her sister, Miss Carrie Pfaff. Fastening a piece of heavy window cord around the rafter and one end around her neck, she leaped to a tragic death when she jumped into an open space leading to the second floor of the barn. Missing from home after 5:30 last Thursday night, it was thought she had been visiting neighbors. Relatives had not the slightest suspicion, they asserted today, that she had even intimated that she would take her own life and that is why they did not go to the barn until Friday morning. Miss Pfaff had been in poor health which is the only motive that can be advanced for the act. She is also survived by a brother of Greenup who runs a grocery store.

WHY ARE SOME WOMEN POPULAR, happy, beloved and successful, while others drag out a negative existence, of no use to themselves or anyone else? Except in a few cases the answer is to be found in a state of freedom from the troubles known as "female." The well woman radiates cheerfulness and serenity, while the ailing one repels because of her lack of these qualities. It is not necessary, however, to harbor aches and pains, and the "blues" that make one a detriment to society. The use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought relief to such women, and given them a new lease on life.

Paris, Ky., May 18. — Miner, a hurler recently released by the Moine club of the Three-I League, held Winchester to one hit here this afternoon and Paris defeated the Clark county team 3 to 0. Riffe, Winchester twirler, also pitched good ball allowing only seven hits, but the Paris nine bunched blows in the second and third rounds for their three runs. LIENS FILED AGAINST REMUS' PROPERTY.

George Remus, Cincinnati attorney, convicted with 13 other defendants of violation of the Federal Prohibition laws in Federal court at Cincinnati said Friday he had received no notice of the filing of three liens against his property at Pearl and Race streets. It was announced Charles M. Dean, U. S. revenue collector, filed the liens to recover government claims for $73,000, $2,310 and $1,604.

Remus said he believed the claims were based on the difference in taxes paid on removal of beverage and non-beverage liquor from his distillery at Maysville, Ky. Remus said if the claims are presented to him adjustment would be made at once.
